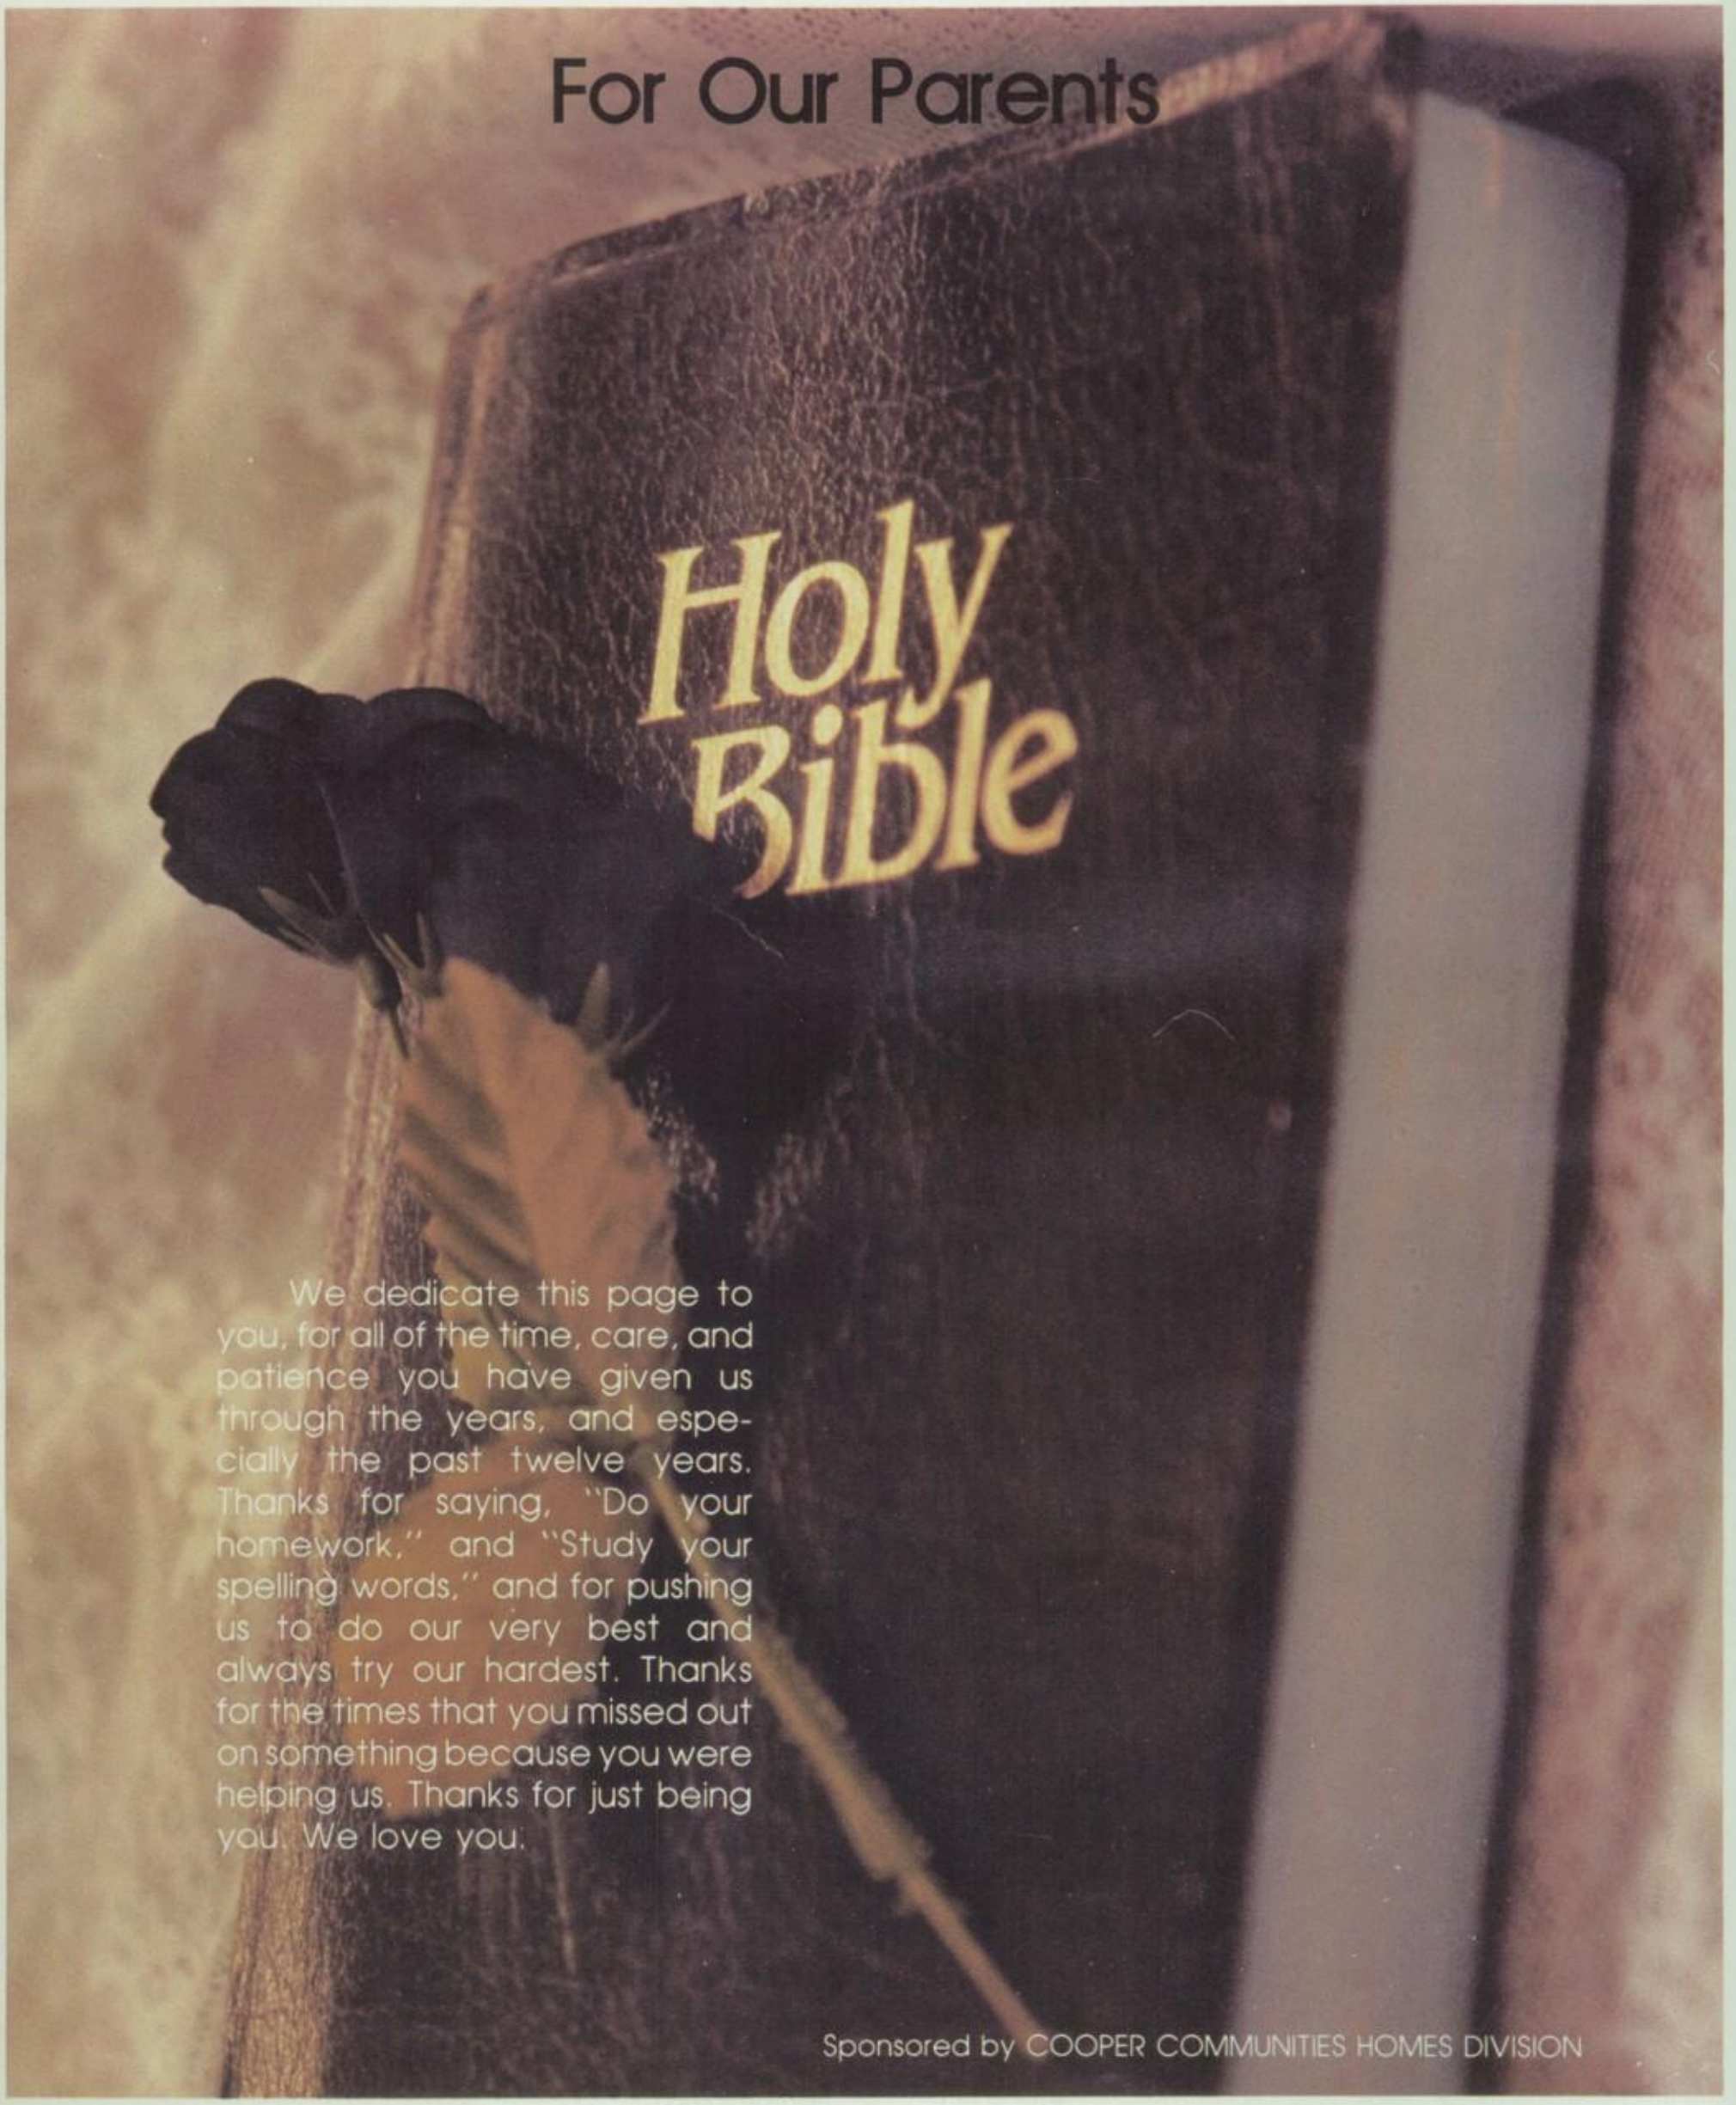
For Our Parents



We dedicate this page to you, for all of the time, care, and patience you have given us through the years, and especially the past twelve years. Thanks for saying, "Do your homework," and "Study your spelling words," and for pushing us to do our very best and always try our hardest. Thanks for the times that you missed out on something because you were helping us. Thanks for just being you. We love you.

Mr. Gene Glazener
Super Superintendent

The Jessieville School provided a broader and more diversified curriculum during this 1985-86 school year than any previous year. We are pleased with the participation, support, and success of you students in these new areas. The Administration and faculty cannot make new programs a success by themselves - you students make the largest contribution.

Our curriculum is in full compliance with the new State Education Standards. This is extremely important when considering that those schools which are not providing the mandated curriculum by spring semester of 1988 will be consolidated with another school district.

The Journalism class is to commened. This is the first year for Journalism in our school and the first year for the Journalism class to produce a yearbook. They are meeting the challenge of carrying on the standard established for the Jessieville Lion.

I wish to congratulate you seniors of 1985-86. I feel confident that you will positively represent the Jessieville School in your future endeavors. By committing yourself, success is yours.

Lynda Cockman
Secretary Extraordinaire

Lynda,

Thank you for helping us throughout the year. We would all hate to think of Jessieville without you.

CLASSES

Mr. Norman Jespersen
Polished Principal

Congratulations to our Journalism instructor, Mr. Williams, and his entire yearbook staff for their efforts and accomplishments in producing such an outstanding yearbook. This book will be treasured for many years to come.

I would like to commend the instructional staff for providing the teaching knowledge, techniques, and learning environment necessary for our students to be academically successful.

The interest, enthusiasm, cooperation and dedication of our student body and their parents have helped make the 1985-86 Jessieville school year an outstanding one. We hope this year has been a very rich and rewarding one for you seniors. We wish you the very best as you leave J.H.S. to pursue your future interest.

I would like to thank Superintendent Glazener and the Board of Education for their leadership and support in our efforts to make the educational program at Jessieville an outstanding one.

M R Jespersen

ELEMENTARY

Elementary Principal

In general, the conception of education, in the minds of average citizens, is shaped by their own experience in school. Why should it change? It served them well, so they want their children to experience the same type of benefits.

Yet, the truth is that education has change. The world has changed. Students in their needs and perspectives have changed. You must prepare yourself for a changing world.

Always our goals include the promotion of individual growth, knowledge, social relationships, and citizenship. We hope we have met these goals with you.

Congratulations on your yearbook! It is a fitting tribute to your completion of school. Good luck to the seniors of 1986.

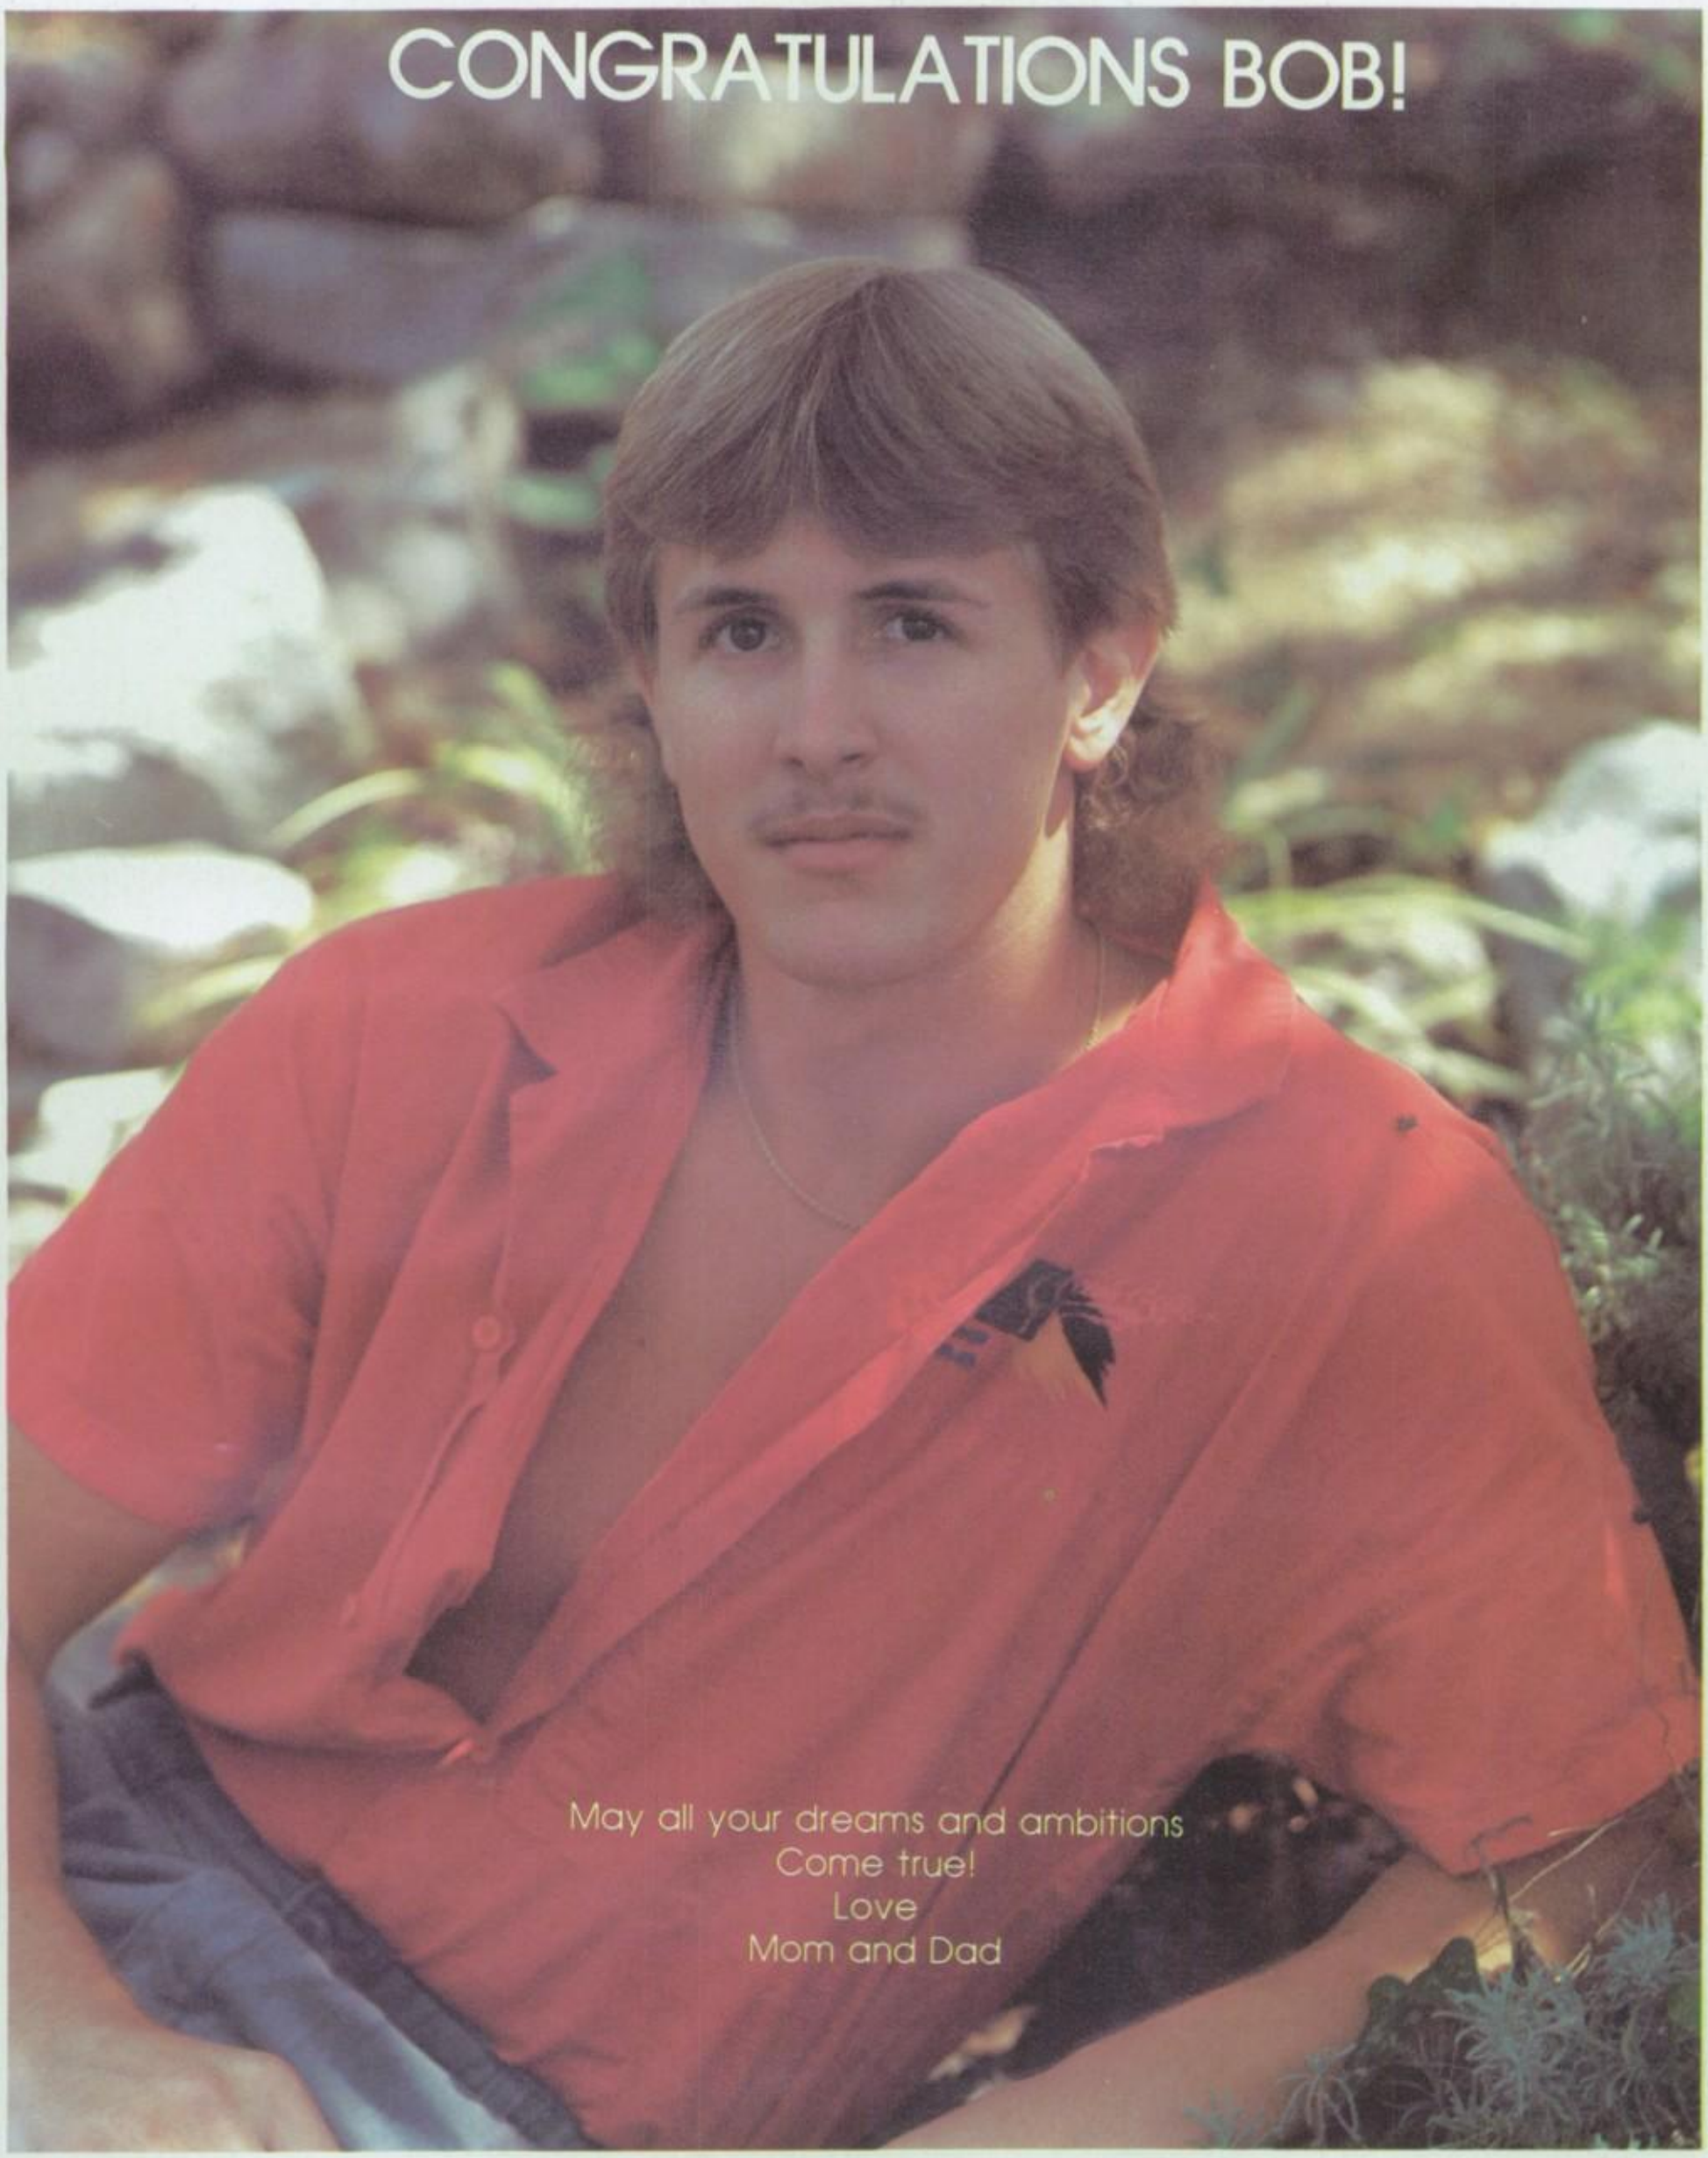
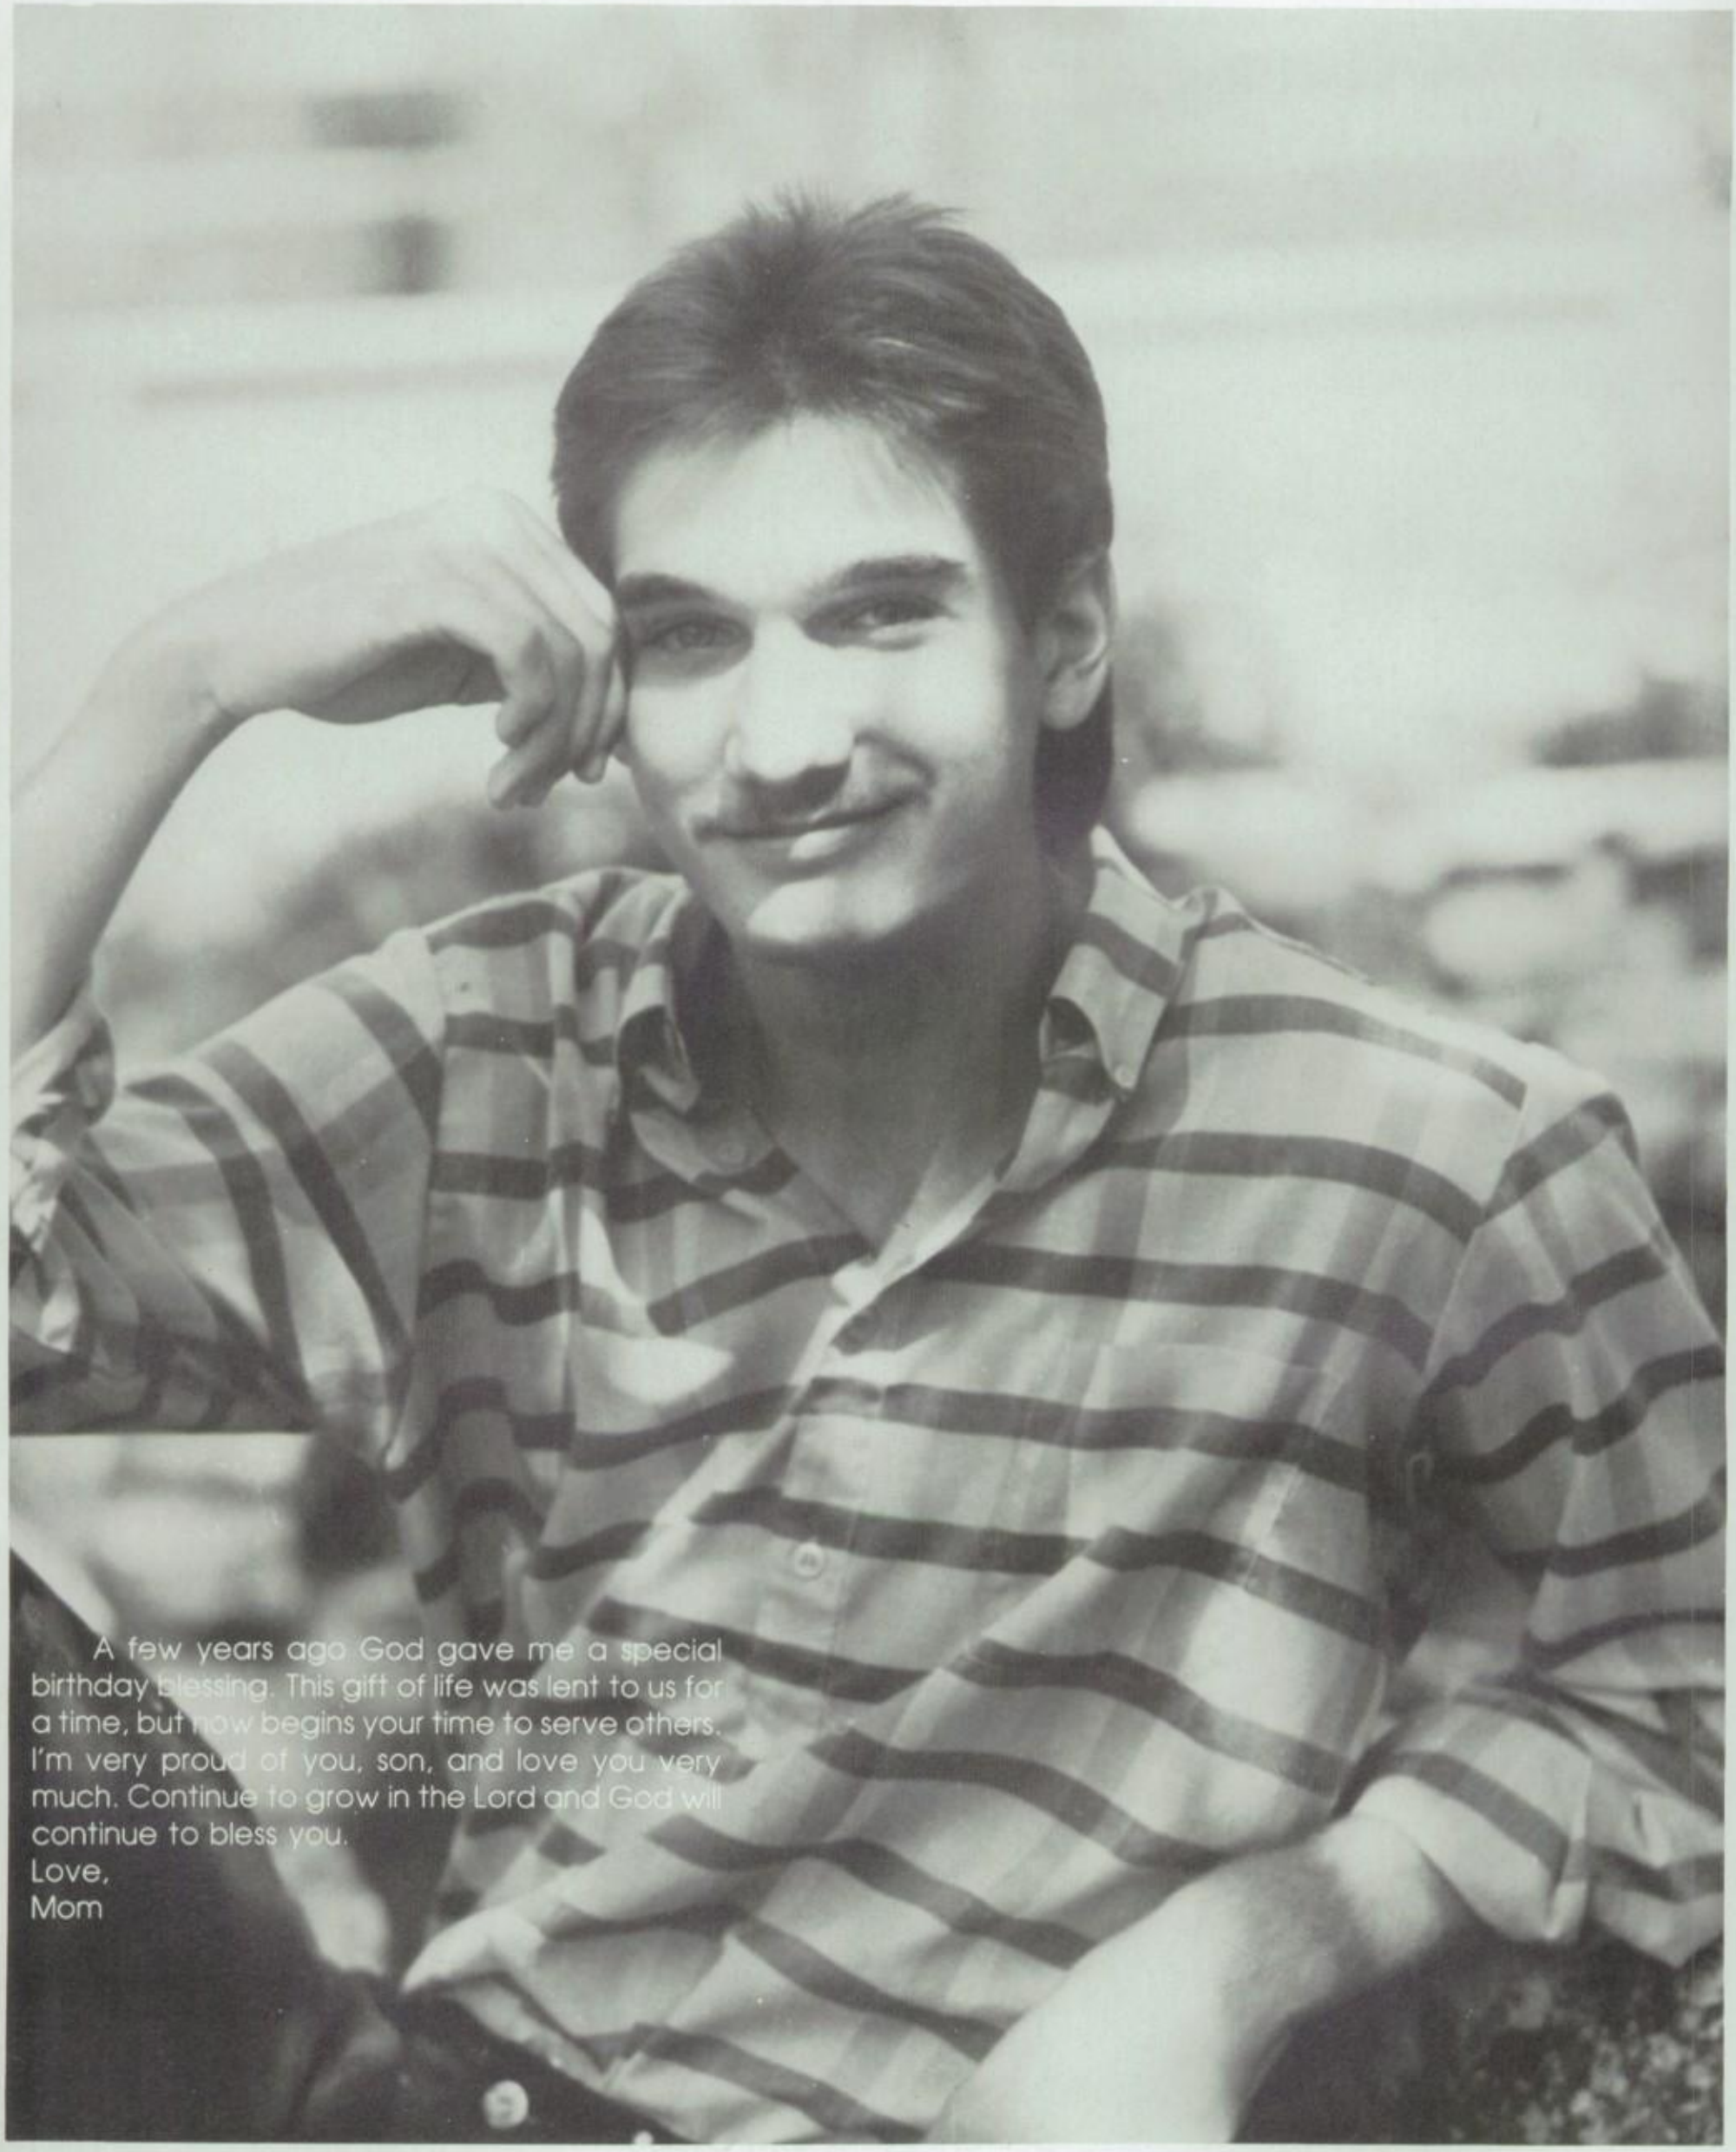
Congratulations Seniors Of '86

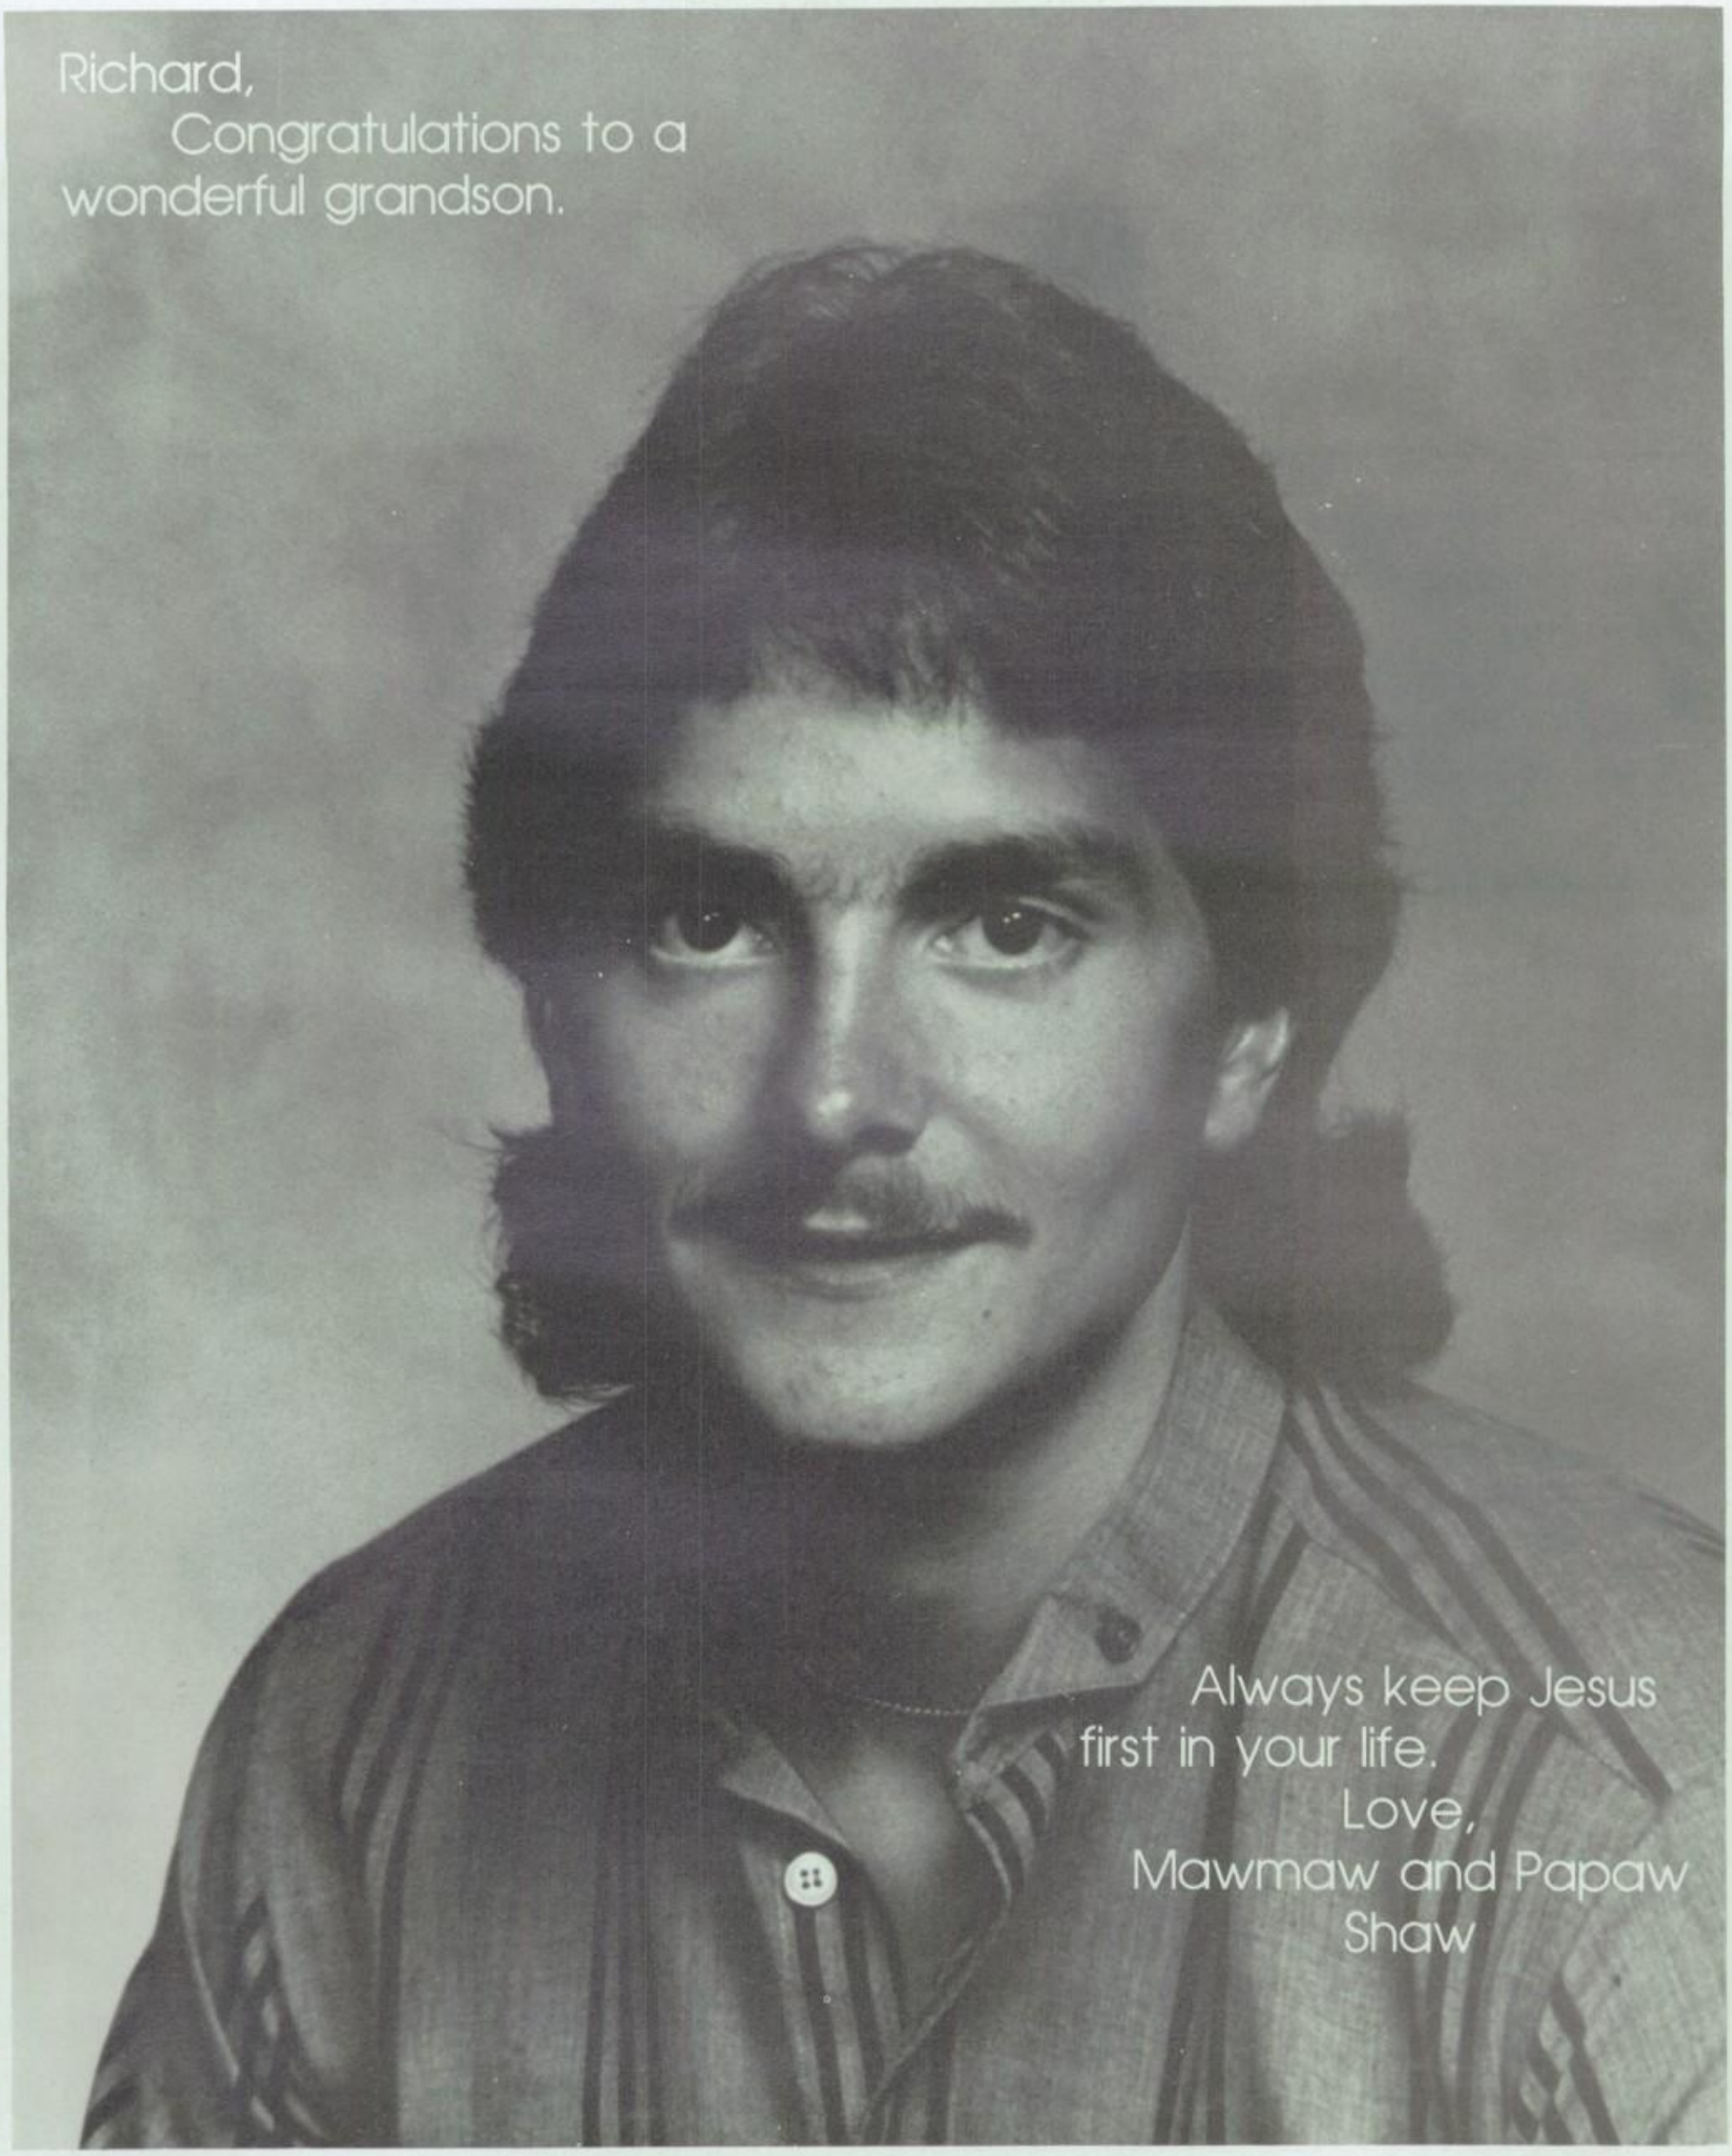
Stacie,
We believe in miracles, God gave us you.
Love, Mom & Dad



CONGRATULATIONS BOB!
May all your dreams and ambitions
Come true!
Love
Mom and Dad



A few years ago God gave me a special birthday blessing. This gift of life was lent to us for a time, but now begins your time to serve others. I'm very proud of you, son, and love you very much. Continue to grow in the Lord and God will continue to bless you.
Love,
Mom



Richard,
Congratulations to a wonderful grandson.
Always keep Jesus
first in your life.
Love,

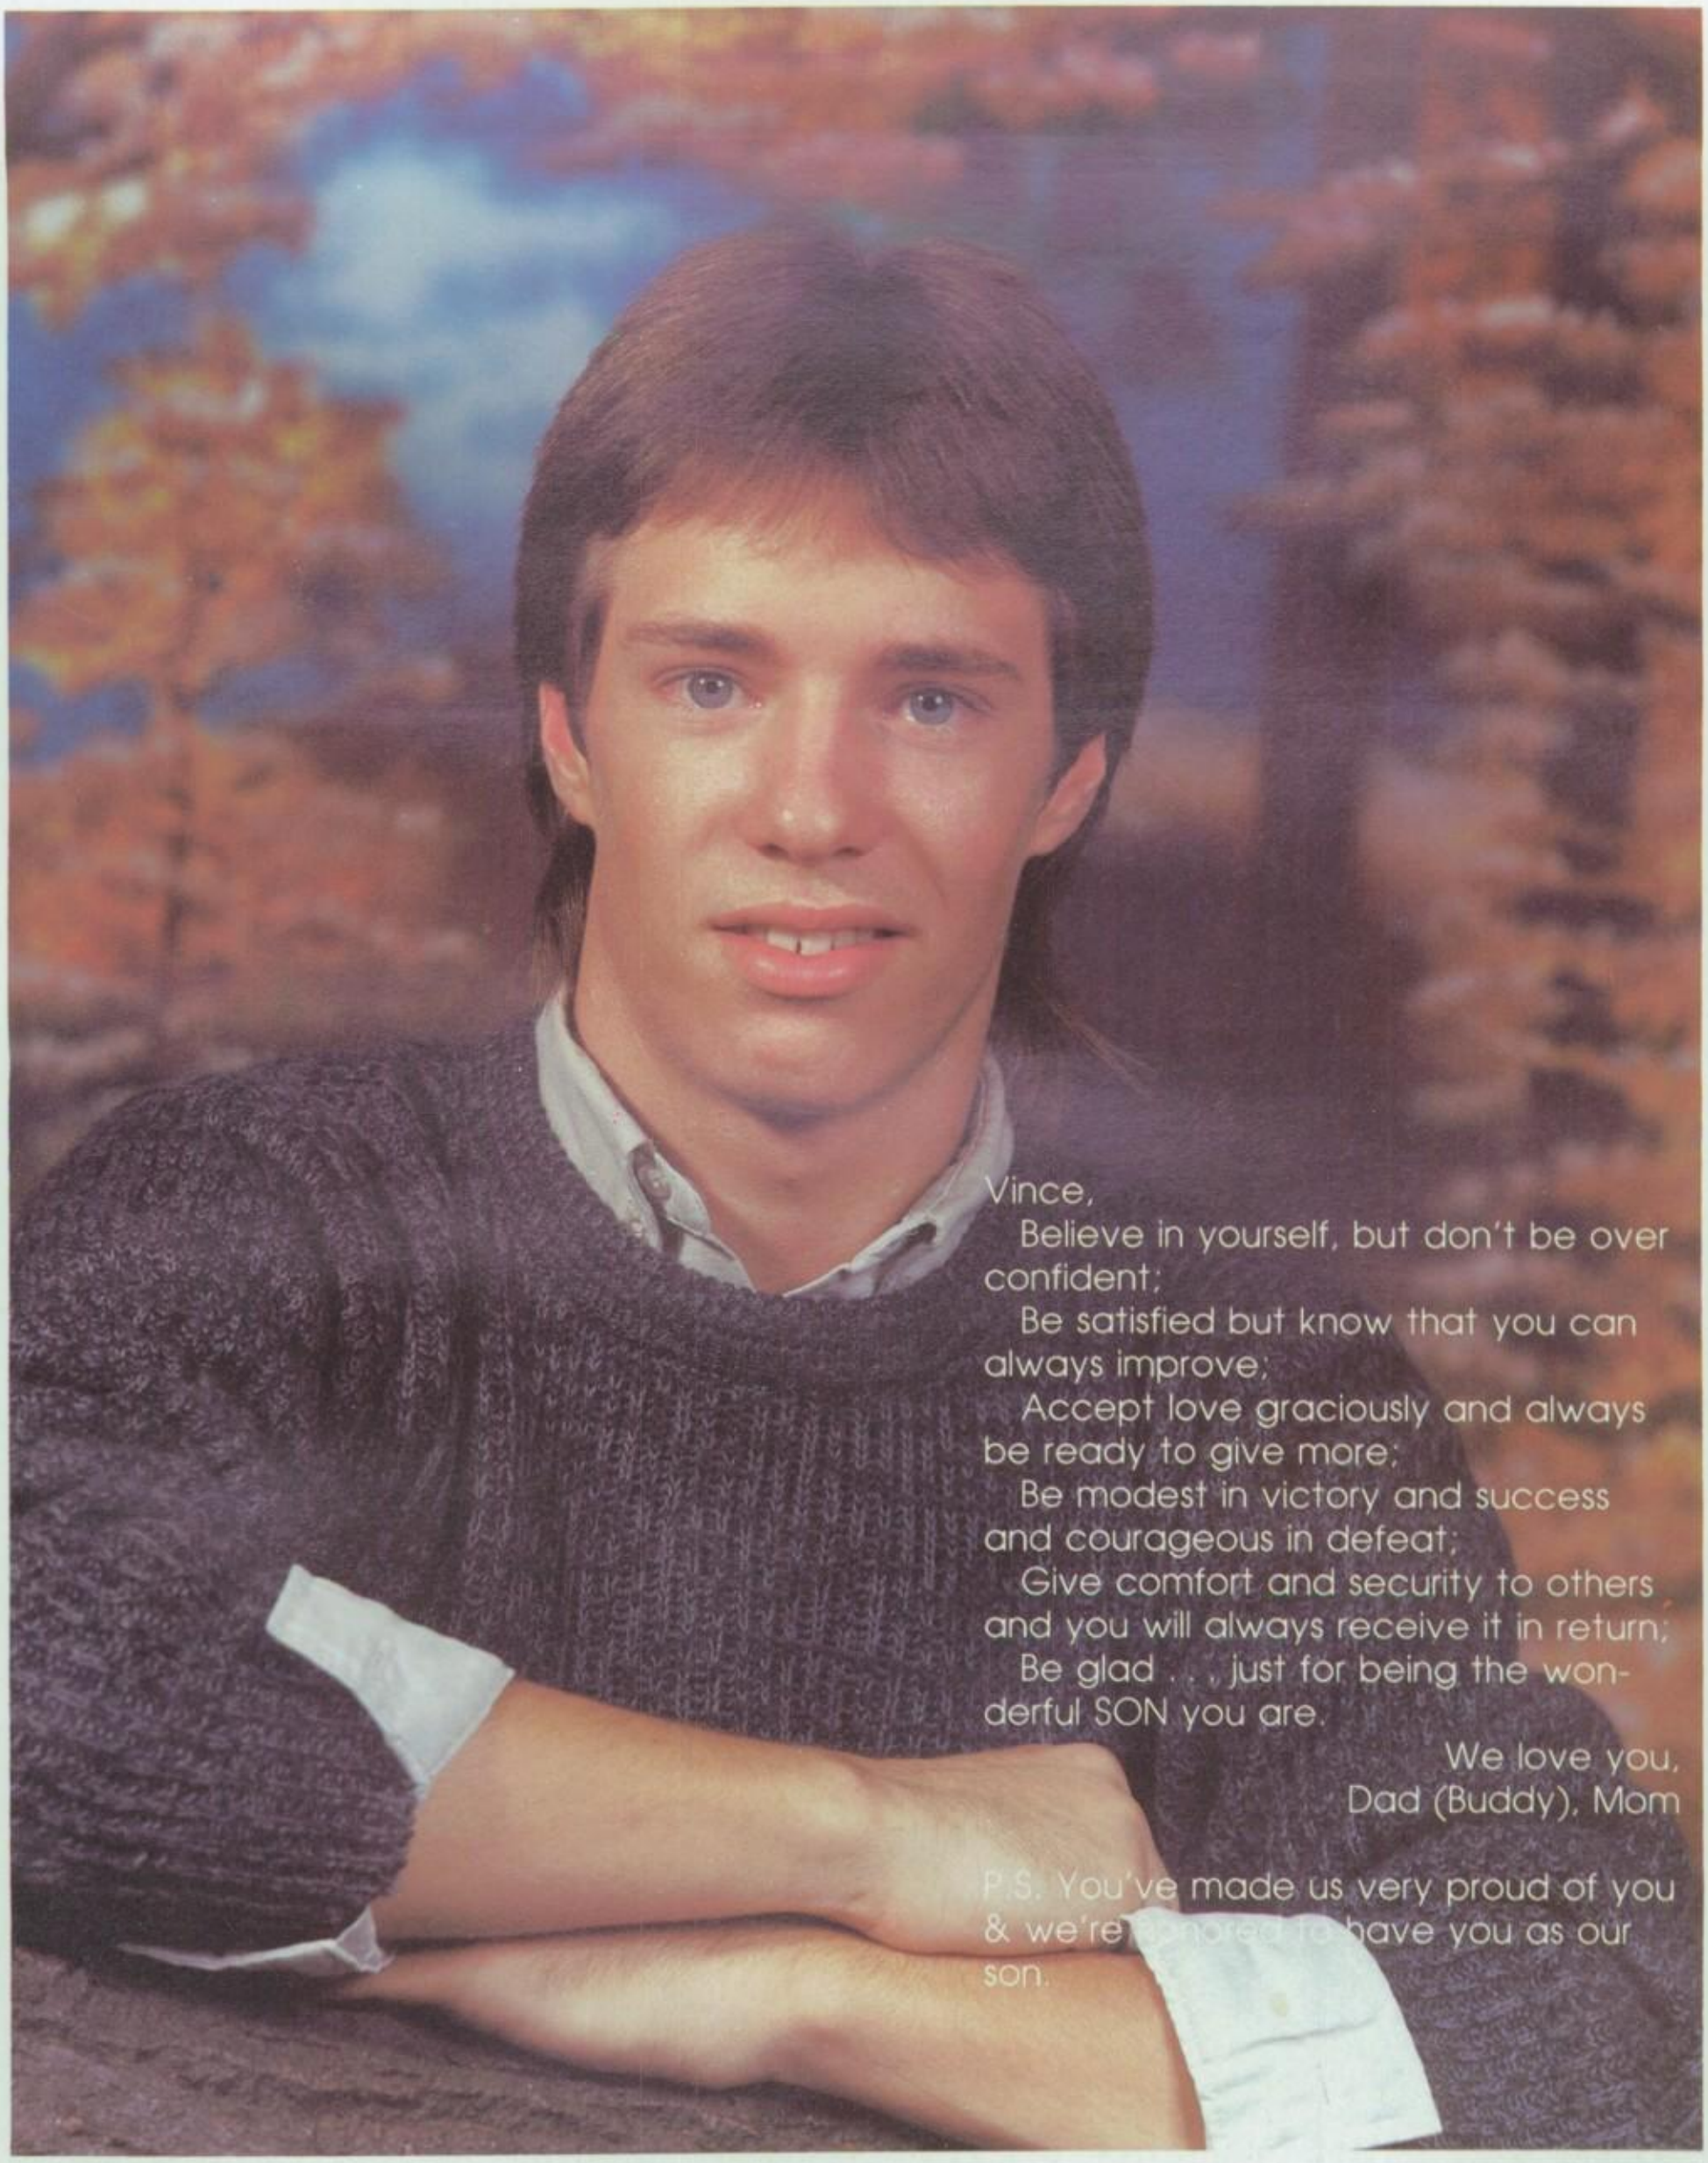
Shaw

Lori,

We are so proud of you and wish you the very best success and happiness.

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Scott, & Peggy



Vince,

Believe in yourself, but don't be over confident;

Be satisfied but know that you can always improve;

Accept love graciously and always be ready to give more;

Be modest in victory and success and courageous in defeat;

Give comfort and security to others and you will always receive it in return;

Be glad . . , just for being the wonderful SON you are.

We love you,
Dad (Buddy), Mom

P.S. You've made us very proud of you & we're honored to have you as our son.

Michael,

As your parents, we have had the privilege of watching you grow into a find young man.

We are so proud of the accomplishments that you have made in school to ready yourself for college and for life. As parents, we can't take full credit for your ability to learn, accept responsibility, and dedicate yourself to what you want and to reach for it.

Parents can only teach you right from wrong, but now that you have reached manhood, you have to choose and to make your own decisions.

Words can't tell you how much LOVE, JOY, RESPECT, and GRATITUDE that you have given your mom and dad.

LOVE: Unconditional
JOY: Happiness and pleasure that you have brought into our lives
RESPECT: For us, as well as others
GRATITUDE: Appreciation for what you are, and are going to become

We love you son, and thank you God for giving Michael to us.

LOVE,

MOM and DAD

Seeing You

When I see you in the hallway,
My mind goes into flight.
I don't know what I see in you
That gives me such delight.

People say I'm crazy;
I tell them this is true.
I guess they just don't realize
How much that I love you.

From your "Baby,"
Dana Roberts

To Mel,

You're the greatest sister a sis' could ever have. I know that we don't always get along, but that's what sisters do. I will miss you when you leave, because I won't have anyone to fight with. I hope that you know that I will always love you. Wishing you lots of luck in your life with Jimmy -

Love,
De

iss,

We lost our hearts to you the first time we saw you, those tiny fingers and toes, blue eyes and little turned ose, and how you're Dad held you up to the window, coming home so everyone could see.

The next thing we knew you were crawling, and walking, then climbing up to peek at "Dee Dee." The sound of tiny foot steps coming to meet us and a small voice singing "Joleen, Joleen, please don't take my man away!" will be etched in our memories forever.

We'll never forget that awful feeling that washed over us, that first day of school, when you crawled up the steps of that big yellow bus and looked back at us. With tears in our eyes we said goodbye.

The years swiftly passed by, and you had your first date. How hard it was for your Dad to let you go. Now there's someone else in your life, but we know that you're still ours forever.

Graduation Day seemed so far away from the first day of school, but now it's here and you're starting a new life. We would like to wish you a world of love and happiness.

Love You Always,
Mom and Dad

Missy,

Go forth with each new dawning day
With faith in God and you,
And you will find that all your fears
Will disappear from view.
Go forth with faith in heart and mind
And confidence anew,
And there is nothing in this world
You'll find you cannot do.
Look at the brighter side of life,
Cast out gloom and despair,
And when you need a helping hand
You'll find God always there.

We love you Melissa.

Congratulations VINCE

I dream of beauty
that transcends time
in a world that knows nothing else where all is clean and pure and good and all mankind is willing to help one another where discovery is a way of life and there is no fear of failure where God is a very personal thing that is real to everyone
I dream of a time that has no pain
and where there is no despair where love has a constant meaning that keeps people together forever
I dream that all of this could someday be true
and I pray that I will share it all
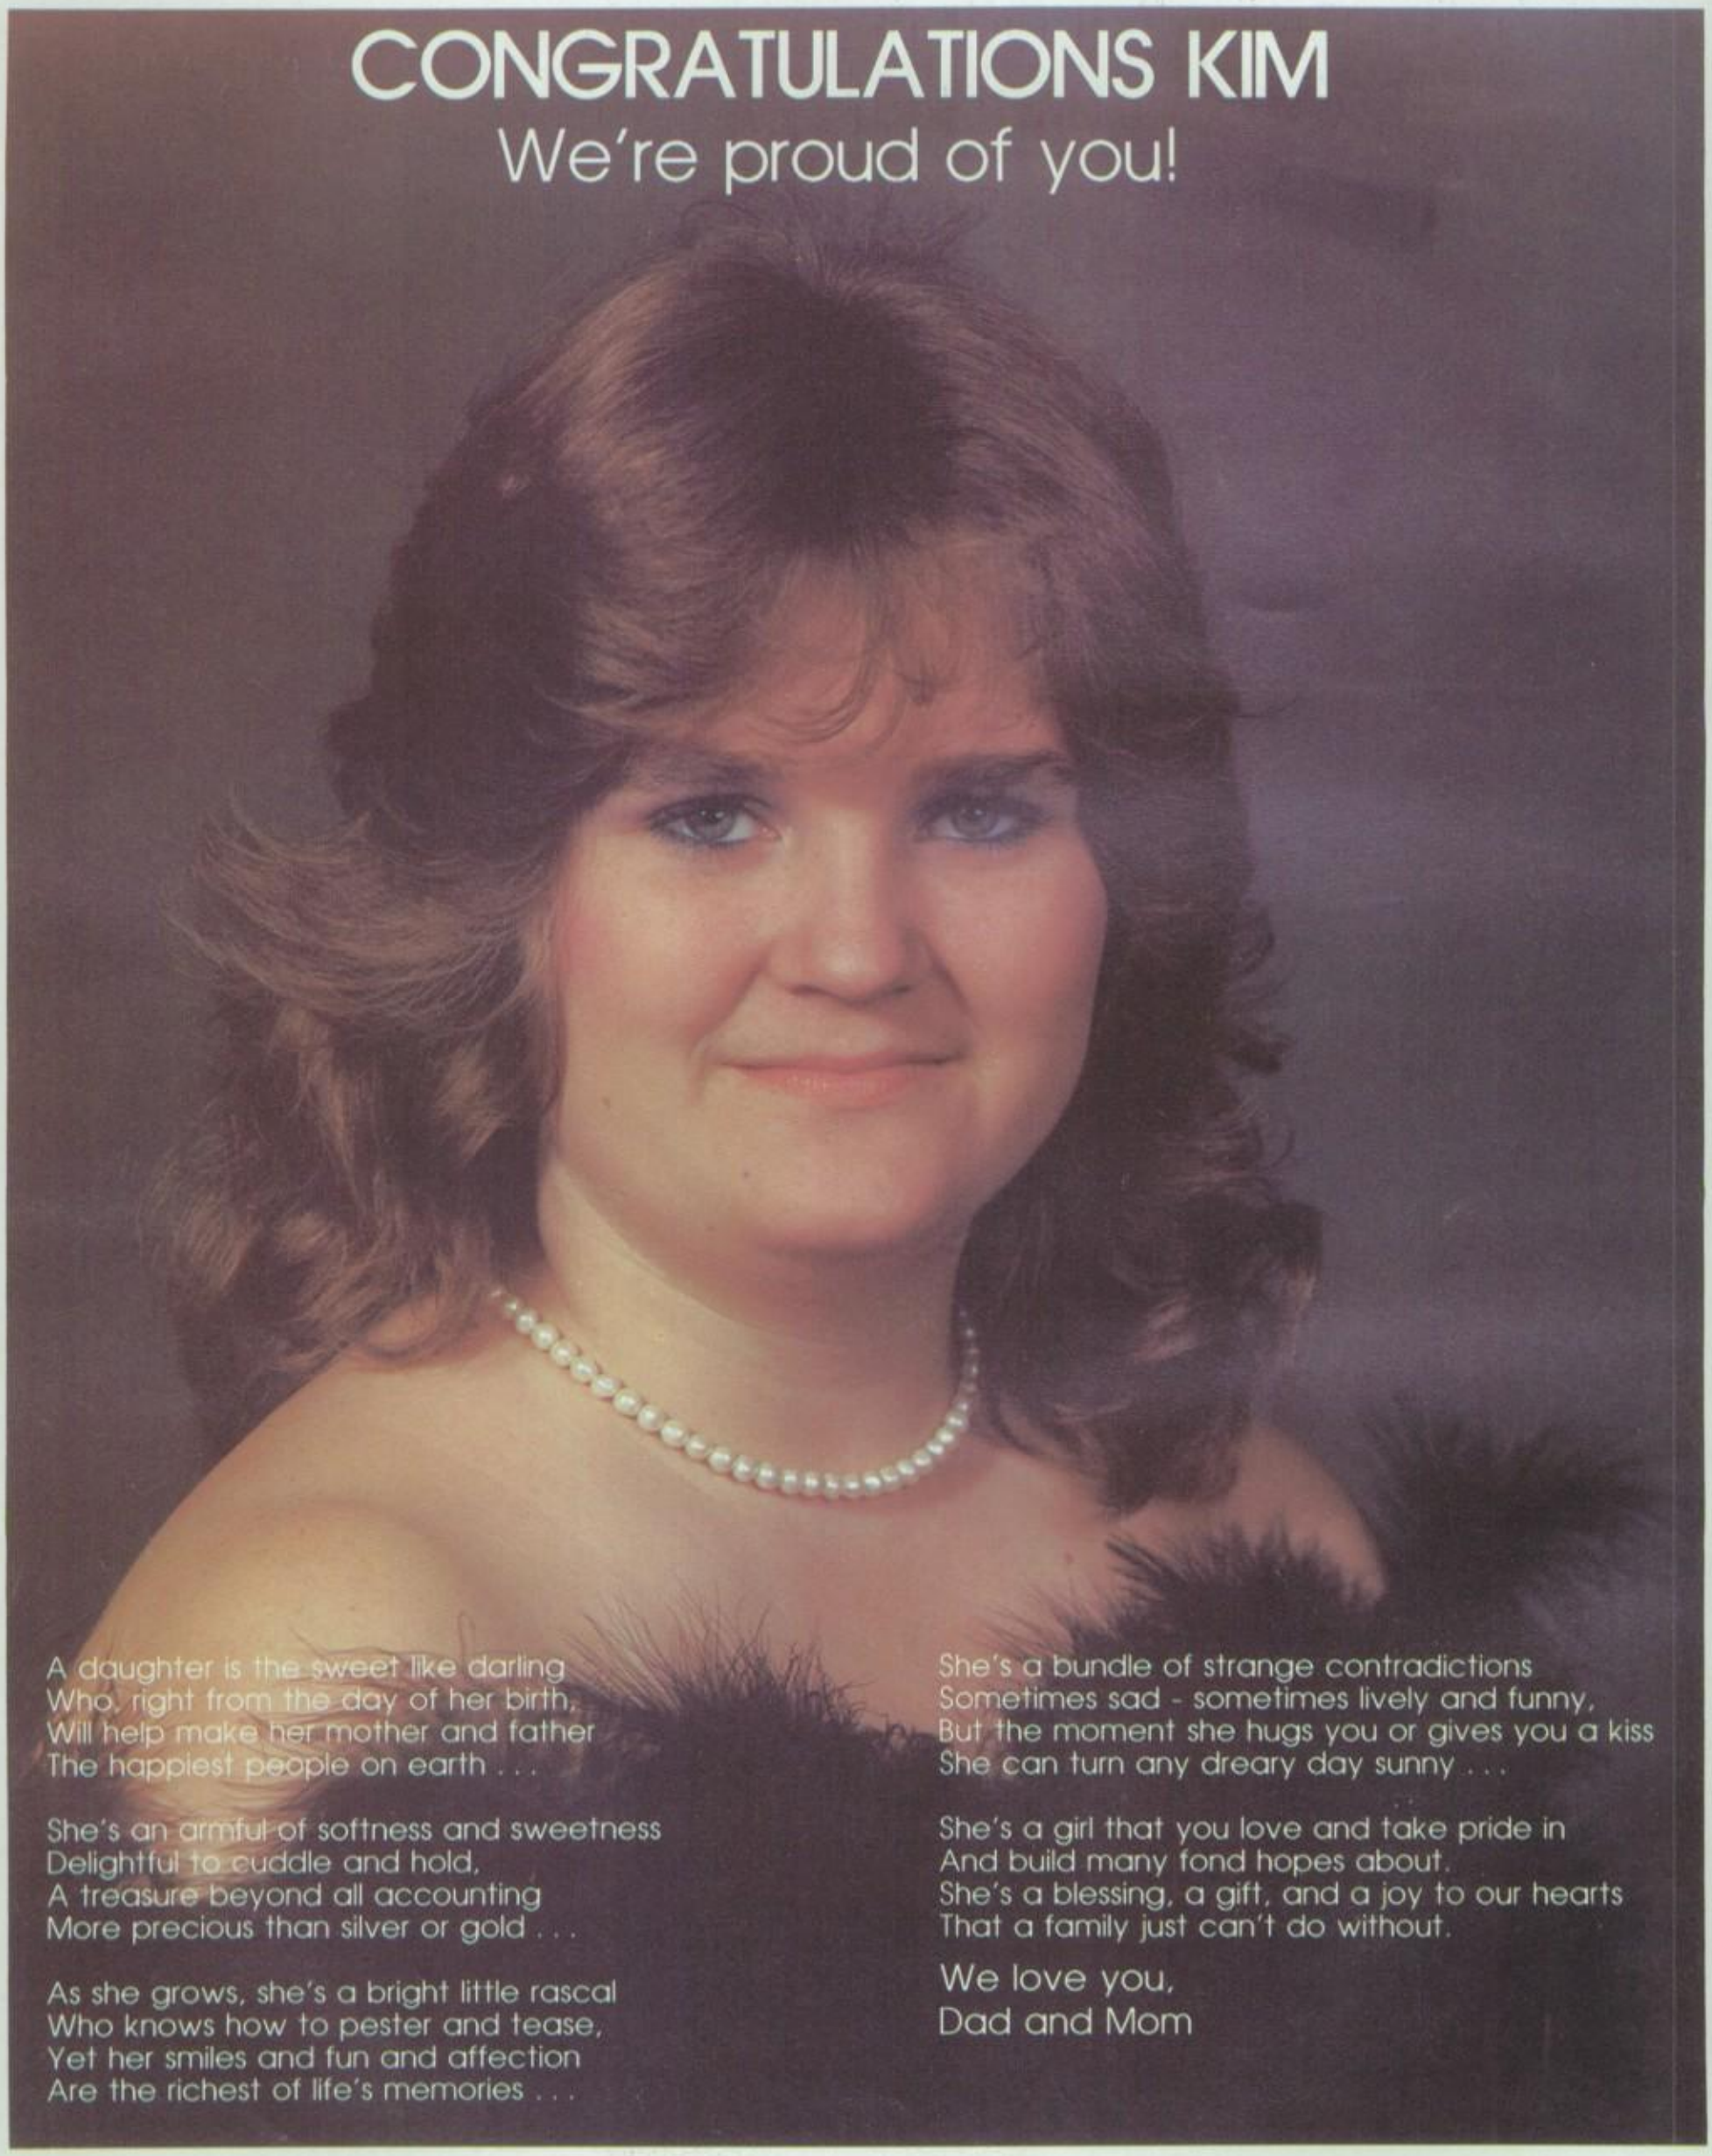
with YOU!

I love you,
Jae

CONGRATULATIONS KIM

We're proud of you!



A daughter is the sweet like darling
Who, right from the day of her birth,
Will help make her mother and father
The happiest people on earth . . .

She's an armful of softness and sweetness
Delightful to cuddle and hold,
A treasure beyond all accounting
More precious than silver or gold . . .

As she grows, she's a bright little rascal
Who knows how to pester and tease,
Yet her smiles and fun and affection
Are the richest of life's memories . . .

She's a bundle of strange contradictions
Sometimes sad - sometimes lively and funny,
But the moment she hugs you or gives you a kiss
She can turn any dreary day sunny . . .

She's a girl that you love and take pride in
And build many fond hopes about.
She's a blessing, a gift, and a joy to our hearts
That a family just can't do without.

We love you,

CONGRATULATIONS SHEILA!

When first I held the small, sweet wonder of you in my arms, I marvelled at all your being - the curious depths of your eyes, the tininess of your wrinkled hands, the fragile, pale shell - like fingernails. How soft and warm and vulnerable you seemed, and now you face your world still wondering. But those wobbly legs are grown long and certain; those little hands smooth and capable; your eyes and words and mind dart like flashes of lightning in the darkness. How eager and young and strong you seem. And I hope you know that I love the woman you're becoming as I loved you at birth. I hope you continue to grow, tempering your strength with softness, your daring with thoughtfulness, your courage with care for yourself and others, and that you achieve your dreams in an ever widening circle of love. Take God with you where you go and his grace will keep you forever.

Our Love Always,

Daddy, Mama, Anthony, and Lisa

Tim,
Sometimes I like to look back at all the great times we had growing up together. It always brings me back to today, where I realize just how important you are in my life. Thanks for being my best friend, and congratulations.

We ma[illegible]t, and
It's nice to know that
Some things never change
That tomorrow the sun will rise,
People will go to work,
Babies will be born and life will go on
It's nice to know that
I can pick up the phone
Even if I haven't talked
To you in weeks or seen you in months,
And it will seem like
Only yesterday that
We were together.
Good Luck, I LOVE YOU,

You're Welcome in Weyerhaeuser's Woods

Our business is growing trees.

But a healthy, growing forest is also a good place for birds and animals to live.

And for people to enjoy.

From browse-filled clearcut to mature forest, our pine plantations provide food and cover for most Arkansas species of wildlife.

Our streamside zones and "Special Wildlife Enhancement Areas" — more than 145,000 Arkansas acres — provide hardwood habitat for others.

And our logging roads provide more than 4,000 miles of free access to the Arkansas out-of-doors for you.

If you'd like a map of our lands in Arkansas, or would like to know more about what we're doing in Arkansas, write Weyerhaeuser, P.O. Box 1060, Hot Springs, Arkansas 71901.

Our Editors

Working on the yearbook has been a great experience. We have worked after school, on weekends, and even through snow, but all the effort has paid off. It has shown us that we can accomplish almost anything.

We would like to thank all the teachers and parents for contributing to the yearbook and being so understanding. You've been there for us and stood behind us.

We have tried to show everyone the "real Jessieville." We hope you appreciate our fine school.
